

I'M YOUR WOMAN

A tribute to Leonard Cohen

Eva G. Hamilton

Over the last five or ten thousand years, men have been asking the question "What does a woman want?"

And for the last few hundred years even women have been asking the question "What does a woman want?"

And now men are asking the question "What does a man want?"

And I just want to notify you that if these thoughts interest you for even a moment, you are lost. I have abandoned this type of question and I stand ready to signify my intention to do anything at all that she wants in order to deserve her caress.

And therefore I declare: I'm your man.

Leonard Cohen

And therefore I declare: I'm your woman.

Eva G. Hamilton

If you want a lover

I'll do anything you ask me to

And if you want another kind of love

I'll wear a mask for you

If you want a partner

Take my hand

Or if you want to strike me down in anger

Here I stand

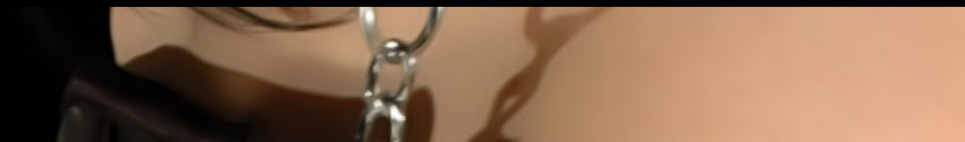

I'm your woman

If you want a boxer

I will step into the ring for you

And if you want a doctor

I'll examine every inch of you

If you want a driver

Climb inside

Or if you want to take me for a ride

You know you can

I'm your woman

Ah, the moon's too bright

The chain's too tight

The beast won't go to sleep

I've been running through these promises to you

That I made
and I could not keep

Ah but a woman never got a man back

Not by begging on her knees

Oh I'd crawl to you baby

And I'd fall at your feet

And I'd howl at your beauty

Like a dog in heat

And I'd claw at your heart

And I'd tear at your sheet

I'd say please, please

I'm your woman

And if you've got to sleep

A moment on the road

I will steer for you

And if you want to work the street alone

I'll disappear for you

If you want a mother for your child

Or only want to walk with me a while

Across the sand

I'm your woman

If you want a lover

I'll do anything you ask me to

And if you want another kind of love

I'll wear a mask for you
